

Hi, I'm Bob Leonard and I'm a full time Realtor here at Family First. I love real estate because of my passion for helping families buy their dream home or, get their home sold so they can move on to a new home. I understand what a huge responsibility it is to help my clients through this process so, I take what I do very seriously. I also get an enormous sense of satisfaction when I find the right house for my buyers or the right buyers for my sellers. My wife Marge and I have been residents of Hurricane for over 20 years and raised our three sons here. In the spring of 2015 we became grandparents for the first time. Our son Jim and his wife Ang and our beautiful granddaughter live in the Phoenix area. Our son Bob is a teacher at Central Catholic High School in Pittsburgh and is working on his PhD in Physics at the University of Virginia. And, our son John and his fiancé are planning their wedding for June 2016. John is a Music Ed teacher in the Kanawha County school system and lives in Cross Lanes.

Marge and I attend the Catholic Church of Ascension here in the valley. We're former Pittsburghers and enjoy watching the Steelers, Pirates and Penguins and visiting the Burgh when we can.
